WEDNESDAY:

The Mendacity of the Journal. We feel very sure that our readers are heartily tired of seeing in our columns contradictions of the gross fabrications and lies being constantly perpetrated by the editor of the Journal. For onr own part it is with the most intense loathing and repugance, that we follow him through the mire and filth of falsehood, which seems to be notice the filthy sheet and its mendacious editor. It is very difficult for one who has not had the same experience, to appreciate how distasteful it is to comment upon the conduct of a man so degraded that no epithel can describe his infamy, and so cowardly that no insult can arouse a spirit of resentment. Just such a man is the editor of the Jonrael.

Premising thus much by way of apolgy for so frequently intruding this loathsome fellow upon the notice of our readers, we proceed to call their attention to two or three out of the vast mass of lies contained in his editorial leader of

Lie 1st .- He says that the Democratic party single Northern State that Mr. Buchanan can CRITY.

Last year, when Know Nothingism was in the Southern people saw that it was merely an ally of Northern Abolitionism, it succeeded in carrywill carry the entire fifteen Southern States. Of Kentucky, one of the two that voted for the Know Nothings they, feel so sure, that they are willing to bet any amount of money upon it, but unforunnately not a single Know Nothing can be found who can be deceived by the Journal into risking his money upon the proposition.

Lie 2d.—That even if Mr. Buchanan should receive the 120 electoral votes of the Sonthern States, "there is no probability," that he can obtain the 29 Northern electoral votes necessarv to an election.

Maine, Connecticut, New Hampbire, New York, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Wisconsin, California, are all regarded as positively certain to vote for Buchanan, yet the editor of the Journal is unscrupnlous enough to publish the absured lie that he cannot get twenty-nine Northern electoral votes.

Lie 3d .- He says "There is, we believe, no Buchanan electoral ticket in any one of the Northern

In all the Northern States, with the exception of three or four, Democratic electoral tickets were appointed before the meeting of the National Convention. Since then electoral tickets have been appointed in those with the exception of New York, and on the 30th of this month, a State convention will assemble in New York to nominate candidates for State offices and an electoral

Every intelligent man, who has watched the course of the Louisville Journal for the last six months, must, before this time, have been DRN O. BULLOCK & JOHN C. NOBLE, EDITORS impressed with the conviction that its editor is False and treacherous as the Journal has ever been to the South, never before have the true Washington Union of June 5th, 1851: proclivities of its editor been so apparent to every reflecting man. He was sent to Kentucky his life, was a member of the federal party, and from Connecticut—that nursery of treason and followed the false lights of the men who are even State, and from thence to make war upon the institutions of the South. If not the chief, he contains we have a state of the south and seeking, at this moment to reinstate the primitive doctrines of the federal party? And is Mr. Buchanan to be scandalized certainly was an important member of that affiliated band of abolitionists with which the antislavery societies of the New England States commenced flooding the slave States about the year 1830, of whom there has, from that time to this. been a never-ceasing tide. Each one of these affiliated abolition miscreants had his special and prescribed line of operations. The Prentices and Callenders were entrusted with the more responsible duty of demoralizing the public sentiment of the State. Fairbanks and his associates confined themselves to the operations of the underground railroads. All were sent to consummate the same villainy-to steal the negroes of Kentncky. The only difference between them was, that one was to operate upon the whole State through an organized political party; the other, because of his inferior capacity, was restricted to stealing individual negroes.

Prentice came to Kentucky recking with the infamous anti-slavery fanaticism, having just vacated the editorial chair of the Hartford Review, one of the vile abolition sheets of New England. But a few months before his immigration to Kentucky, he had written for that paper a violent and incendiary article against the institution of slavery, from which the following is an extract: "The purchase of Texas must be opposed. Every man who does not wish to see the power his congenial and appropriate abode. Were it of the Northern and Western States depart fornot for a stern rense of duty, we should never ever; every man who does not wish to see a dozen new slave States added to the Union, and to hear the cries of additional millions of wretches negroes going up to meet the Lord in the air and mprecate vengeance npon our land, will oppose he purchase of Texas with a deep and irresistible determination.

Immediately upon his arrival in Kentncky, he repaired to Lexington, then the focus of political ower in the State, and invoked the aid and cooperation of Robert Wickliffe, to establish an Abolition newspaper, which should labor to rid Kentncky of the curse of slavery. That able and staunch friend of the South refused the abolition

THE WHEELBARROW MAN .- Col. Fremont was commended to the Northern Republicans as a marvelous proper man for President, chiefly be-cause he had explored and mapped out the Rocky Mountains.

Some years ago, a man started from the At-

NOTORIETY NOT ALWAYS ENVIABLE. - Jack Sheppard was one of the most notorious men of his time. Emeal Brae is so notorious that not long since he was politely invited to leave the National Hotel. Piekpoekets are generally notorious if toriously offensive vermin and notoriously plenty torious that it figures conspicuously in a recent unfinished condition than to its decided inclination to decay. It is highly probable that a certain description of picture, called patent Ambrotype, is rapidly gaining this species of notoriety. Harris' Collodiotypes are popular. They get their name from Collodion, an article well known in surgery, in and of which they are made,-This is as plain as the nose on a man's face.

Harris will be pleased to show it-that is the picture, not the nose-to all who call at his Gallery, on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth.

Perfection in Art - Every day brings something new. We live in an age of improvement and discovery. Of all the improvements in Art, or Photography, the one made by Troxel recently is the greatest—that of producing natural the judgment of the Court—that Mr. Brooks pay colors on glass pictures. Scientific men have a fine of three hundred dollars, Mr. Brooks respent hours of study in order to overcome what seemed to be cause and effect, but to no purpose recently. Troxel, who is a prodigy in his profession, has brought this beautiful art of picture Ambrose Webster and James Bowes, drunk-enness and disorderly conduct. Bail in $300 drapery and skin, rosy hue of the cheek, with drapery and skin, rosy hue of the cheek, with life-like expression, only go to show the art is address to the public in the form of a protest perfected. Some of the picture ernment continues on the best footing with that can be seen by calling at his Ambrotype rooms of France, and that the French Minister evinced on Main, between Second and Third, over the

THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS-FIRST SES-

SION. WASHINGTON, July 8. SENATE.-Mr. Donglas from the Committee on Territories to which was referred the House bill to admit Kansas as a State into the Union, reported back the bill with an amendment striking out the preamble and all after the enacting out the preamble and all after the enacting clause and inserting the bill which passed the Senate Thursday, and asked its immediate consideration which was agreed to. Mr. Douglas proceeded to advocate the amendment.

Mr. Douglas remarked that the proposition before the Senate was a plain one, namely: whether they would admit Kansas into the Union with the Topeka Constitution, or whether they would substitute the proposition which, after it had been modified to obviate the objections made against it, had been adopted by the Senate after a full and thorough examination the other night. There was no evidence whether a majority or minority of the people of Kansas voted for the Topeka Constitution, but it is known that the Constitution which had been presented here, and which it was now proposed to legalise, was a mutilated document. That fact was ascertained not only from the general newspaper statements. but was proved by the report of the House Committee of investigation, and in commenting on that report he characterizes it as partial, unfair, and unreliable. He regarded the fairness and ustness of the proposition submitted by him. Mr. Collamer, a member of the Committee on Territories, said the bill reported might appear very plausible, but the exciting circumstances of the case rendered the adoption of that measure exceedingly improper. He believed the only true and sound mode to afford redress to the existing evils was first to remove the cause af those evils. It would not do say the evils be rendered bad and at the same time declare that the causes which produced them should not be touched.— Such a course seemed to be inconsistent and unreasonable.

With reference to the provision allowing settlers to return to Kansas, he said there was a blockade of the Territory by men of violence, whose habitation was full of instruments of cruelty, and thus it was impossible for them to get The same power that drove them away is still in the ascendency, and no provision has been made for their security in the Territory.— Thus it was but mockery of justice to tell them if they would return they would be allowed to vote, while they have not the power to return. Hence they would derive no advantage from this ough provisionss appeared to be so fair and plausible

Mr. Pearce spoke briefly in favor of the amend-Mr. Hale opposed it, and said the President came from some of the best stock in New Hamphirc. His father was brave and patriotic and he believ ed the son equally so He had said this when Mr. Pierce was in the zenith of his power and expect ed to be a candidate at the next election and he would say it now when the President had faller so low that the Senate would ride rough shod over his vetoes and only eight or ten member found to stand by him. Mr. Hale moved to amend that amendment by extending the time allowing the President to paricipate in its benefits until July 4, 1857: yeas 13: navs 32. Mr. Trumbull moved an amendment to repeal all Territoriel of Kansas and dismiss all officers holding office under them. Rejected; yeas 12; navs 32. Collamer offered an amendment in favor of rohibiting slavery from that part of the Lonsiana purchase north of 36 39 notfineluded with in Kunsas: rejected: yeas 12; navs 30. The amendment reported by the committee was agreed to: yeas 32; nays 13 and the bil! thus amended Adjourned. Housz-Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, said he intended to call up to-day the report of the select com-mittee on the alledged assault on Sumner, but would not now do so, as he understood the trial was in progress before the court.

Mr. Cobb—the trial is over and Mr. Brooks is in his seat. The Senate bill enlarging the Custom House, Postoffice, Court House at Milwaukic and Detroit a wound where this Liniment is used. Price, 25 and for the construction of a building for similar purposes at Dubuque, was carnestly debated and then referred to the Committee of the Whole State of the Union.

A message was received from the Senate announcing of the passage of that body of the bills the improvent of the mouth of the Mississippi and St. Clair and St. Mary's rivers, notwithstanding the President vetoes of the same. An account of the Senate's proceedings and a copy of the President's objections accompanied the message. Mr. Orr said there was no necessity of discussion at this late period of the session, and moved the previous question. Agreed to.

The bill to remove the obstructions from the mouths of the Mississippi was then read. The Speaker announced the question will the House open a reconsideration of this bill, and agree to its passage. The yeas and nays being called for the vote resulted yeas 139, nays 55.—

The bill for deeping the channel over the flats of St. Mary's River was then passed—yeas 136, nays 54.
Mr. Washburn, of Illinois, gave notice that the first time the House shall again form into a committee on the whole state of the Union, after Wednesday, he shall move to pass over all other hills with a view to reaching those heretofore reported, making appropriations for rivers and harbors. The House then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, July 8. The case of Mr. Brooks for assault and battery on Mr. Sumner was before the Judge of the Criminal Court this morning. There was a large attendance, including Senator Butler and other members of Congress. The District Attorney read the correspondence between him and Sum-ner to show that he had used due diligence though unsuccessfully to obtain the presence of Mr. Sum-ner, who had expressed himself that he had no desire to take a part in the proceedings, and left the city. Testlmony was brought by Mr. L. Leden, who caused the arrest of Mr. Brooks after the assanlt. J. W. Simonton, Keitt, Senators Foster, Pearce, and Toombs appeared in mitigation. At the instance of Ginter, the counsel for the accused, the extracts were read from Mr. Sumner's speech reflecting on South Carolina and on Mr. Doctors Boyle and Lindsey and Senator Benjamin testified, the latter expressing his opinion, from what he saw of Mr. Sumner, that Sumner had his speech printed before its delivery Mr. Brooks made sport of the speech, regret ting that Mr. Summer was absent as he had hoped to have the benefit of an interrogation concerning his testimony before the House Committee.— He took the ground that there are some offences for which the law affords no adequate remedy, and said while he had a heart to feel and a hand to strike he would redress the wrongs of his political mother from the effort to cover her with dishonor. His property might be squandered, his life endangered, but he would be true to her who bore him. He then bronght to the majesty of the law to receive his sentence. Judge Craw-ford said as the matter might perhaps be the subject of an investigation at another place (meaning the House of Representatives) he would forbear to comment on the testimony and pronounce

PETERS, CRAGG & CO.'S Piano Forte Factory. MAIN STREET, Between Thirteenth and Fourteenth

THE subscribers begleave to call the attention of dealers, professors, and others wishing to purchase Piano Fortes, to the extensive as sortment of their improved circular scale full iron frame instruments, now on hand and ready for finishing. By the erection of a large additional factory building, they are prepared, should the wants of the trade deniand it, to turn out seven instruments per week, or 350 Pianos per annum. Buyers may rely upon getting Instruments fully equal, in all the requisites of a good Piano, to any made in the United Staires, and at a saving of from 26 to 50 dollars on each instrument. All the wood used in our manufactory is thoroughly seasoned, and no pains or expense are spared in turning out each Piano perfect in every respect. For two consecutive years the Agricultural Association and Mechanics' institute have awarded first premiums to those Pianos over all others when in competition.

Pain in the pir of the stomach, or towards the right side, Sallowness of complexion.
Depression of spirits and irritability of temper, &c. If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption. I would impress upon the mind that to trife with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most deheate stomach can hear it conveniently, and it is given with perfect eafety, in minute doses to the most teuder infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is neatly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.

The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

Philadelphita, March 16, 1853.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I bave been hable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous trittability, despondency, a sense of weignt in the stomacli, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and nervous depressions left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure secured aimost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
